THE ARTICULATING PAPER

The Official Newsletter of the AUDSS

WELCOME BACK!

Hi all! Hope everyone is feeling refreshed after a well-deserved break and ready to continue the semester.

Welcome to the very first issue of the Articulating Paper, a monthly newsletter which will keep you up to date about everything dental.

We are now a quarter through the year! As we start to approach the middle of the year, there are a bunch of exciting events coming up (including exams, but let's cross that bridge when we get to it). Please read on for an idea of what's to come, and also a little flashback of the past few months.

DIGITISING PROBES

Ever wanted to be a part of AUDSS history? Here's your chance! AUDSS is putting out a call for help with digitising old issues of the Probe, the annual AUDSS magazine. You will get to see what dental school was like back in the days, including how current members of staff looked, and cartoons (read: 60s' memes).

For more information, please contact Publications or Bree Zaccardo

EARLY BIRD BALL TICKETS

Ball may seem far away (August 17th), but early bird tickets come on sale MAY 25TH. This is centenary ball and is not to be missed! Make sure you snag those tickets ASAP!

ADSA CONVENTION

Tickets are now on sale for the 2019 ADSA Convention (JULY 1ST-JULY 7TH), which will be held in none other than Adelaide! Involving dental students from all across Australia, this year's Convention is not to be missed, with activities including a full day of hands-on workshops, daily specialist lectures to enhance your passion for dentistry, social events on every day of the week and accommodation right in the heart of the city.

There are a variety of packages to choose from, including one especially for Adelaide students, with all academic and social events included for $420 for the whole week.

Get your tickets now!

SLEEP OUT

Sleep Out is coming up this Friday (MAY 10TH), and it's not too late to make a fundraising page! Remember, donations of more than $5 will allow you free entry into the event! This year, the prize for the highest fundraiser will be Amalgament loupes!

There will also be a raffle draw throughout the night, with many prizes to be won, along with performances and board games! Hope to see you there!

BDS1 TOOTH ID WORKSHOP

First years! Finding it hard to tell teeth apart? Student Affairs will be hosting a hands-on tooth ID workshop on MAY 20TH from 5PM-7PM. Come along to find out exactly how the 15 is different from the 25.
